Free Price Later

If you have grain you would like to move, but want more time to price it take advantage of our free Delayed Pricing program. Haul your Wheat in now, but have the flexibility to price it between now and July 14, 2017 and for your Corn and Beans you will have until September 22, 2017.

Charge Policy Effective April 1, 2017

Effective April 1st Red River Grain will be implementing a "Net 15 Days" for payments as opposed to the 15th of the following month. We ask that you pay directly from your invoice within 15 days of receiving the product instead of paying from your monthly statement. To remain competitive in the future and out of respect for our customers, going forward this will be our new policy. We appreciate your flexibility as we work to improve our systems. As always, thank you for your business!

OUR SPRINGTIME

TIP!

Check Your Grain Bins!

With the warm weather approaching everyone needs to check the condition of grain in your bins. If you cooled your grain down you will need to bring it back up to ambient air temperature to avoid sweating and having your grain go out of condition.
